RAAA ANNOUNCES ANNUAL SCHOLARSHIPS

The Regional Aviation Association of Australia (RAAA) is calling for applications for its 2012 pilot and engineering scholarships.

The RAAA is proud to have joined with member organisations to be able to assist the future pilots and engineers of tomorrow.

Once again, Ansett Aviation Training, Jeppesen Australia and Michelin are the companies supporting these much sought after scholarships. They are thanked sincerely for their ongoing commitment to regional aviation.

Full details of the scholarships are available on the RAAA web-site.

For any enquiries, please contact Edward Barend at the RAAA office, on 02-61620305.
